

Declaration guidelines for Unaccompanied Personal Goods to Sri Lanka
Any items not listed under "ARTICLES CONSIDERED FOR DUTY FREE" must be declared accordingly which are considered as non personal goods (either by nature of goods or quantity). Such goods are bona fide for personal use or use of a family member, provided the total quantity in respect of any single item is not a commercial quantity as determined by the Director General of Custom (listed below). Such goods must be landed within 30 days before or within 90 days after arrival (good must arrive at our warehouse at least 15 days before returning to Sri Lanka *arrival stamp). Such goods shall not include: goods imported for purposes of sale or exchange; goods which are the property of any person other than the passenger nor prohibited goods under the Schedule B of Customs Ordinance. Any such item found undeclared as mentioned will be considered as a violation of the "Customs Ordinance" of Sri Lanka and will be subjected to a penalty prescribed under "Customs Ordinance of Sri Lanka"
